Small Group Worship at the Meetinghouse

After listening carefully to our community and giving thoughtful consideration to ways to meet the needs of our community, the Ministry & Worship Committee received permission from the Meeting to begin offering responsible opportunities for small group worship in a variety of settings. We invite the Chapel Hill Friends Meeting community to try and help us evaluate options for small group worship over the coming weeks.

In this unprecedented time, the committee is not pursuing the perfect answer to how to worship together, and we do not know the lowest risk way to proceed.

Note: To promote safety and reduce the possibility of Covid 19 transmission and infection, the completion of vaccination protocol and the wearing of masks around others on meeting property is lovingly expected. A risk assessment tool is available as well (https://www.microcovid.org/tracker). To keep the small group worship simple, there will be no refreshments available (bring your own water), indoor participants will be urged to go outside at the rise of meeting to limit time in the building, and the building will be closed between early and late meetings. Friends are asked to not go downstairs (except for the nursery), for simplicity in preparation and maintenance of safe spaces..

Children older than 3 are encouraged to attend the first 15 minutes of worship and will be led down to the playground for First Day School, which is on the playground during Covid. However, there will be at least one adult on the playground starting at 11:00 for those who are nervous about indoors. For children under 3, the nursery is open downstairs if needed.

Quaker House Update and Upcoming January Visit

In January, date to be announced, Chapel Hill Friends Meeting will host Wayne Finegar, Quaker House's new Executive Director, when he presents our forum then worships with us afterwards. After a busy summer and fall visiting SAYMA, SEYM, NCYM-C, Piedmont Friends, NC Fellowship, Baltimore YM, NCYM-C Representative Body, and monthly meetings in Vermont and South Carolina, Wayne is now visiting local monthly meetings, particularly those from Quaker House's founding.

While not on the job even a year, Wayne quickly understood to expect the unexpected for Quaker House. This year's unexpected was the war in Ukraine, the talk of using tactical nuclear weapons, and the Supreme Court's reversal of Roe v. Wade. The attack on Ukraine brought surprising reactions by lifelong pacifists about war, and the SCOTUS decision threatened the ability of some women in the military, depending upon the state where stationed, to seek an abortion if they choose.

Beyond these unanticipated events, Quaker House continued to meet the expected demands of counseling military personnel who have a change in conscience or rights denied, who may be struggling with moral injury or other invisible wound of war, or who need support as a victim of domestic violence within the military. One recent example of this work is:

Our GI Rights counselors were working with a marine seeking conscientious objector discharge, a long and arduous process. The Marine was approved at every level until reaching the General to sign the final endorsement. The General recommended a "general discharge under honorable conditions" instead of an "honorable discharge." The difference in characterization is eligibility for the GI Bill, meaning tens of thousands of dollars in education benefits that this Marine already earned.

The General wrote that the Marine had no other disciplinary issues. It bothered the Marine that somebody was saying he did something that wasn't honorable. Our counselors pointed out that by military regulations the General is supposed to share his reasoning and obviously didn't. They helped the Marine file a rebuttal to the General's recommendation including the fact that his record showed no decline in performance.

The case continues as well as our counselors' support and affirmation of this Marine.

We look forward to seeing Wayne on January 29 at Forum, online with Zoom, and hope to hear more stories about the work of Quaker House.

Nominate a Benevolence - Dear Friends,

We are asking members and attenders to nominate one or more Quaker organizations and/or groups with whom CHFM people are involved, to receive benevolence contributions from Chapel Hill Friends Meeting.

We will take nominations through December, closing on the last First Day of December (Christmas Day).

Please tell us in a few sentences why you think we should support your nomination.

Please include contact information for the organization: phone numbers, email addresses, their website and snail mail.

Please send your nominations to CHFM-PJ-Benevolences@googlegroups.com

We are seeking organizations other than those which receive our Legacy Benevolences: Inter-Faith Council for Social Service (IFC), Quaker House, Carolina Friends School (CFS), American Friends Service Committee (AFSC) and Friends Committee on National Legislation (FCNL). Our Legacy organizations receive approximately 75% of what we give, and we want your input on other organizations for the remaining 25%.

Holiday Meals Provided by the Interfaith Council (IFC)

As we gather with family and friends this season to share festive meals, please consider those in our community who are in need. For $30, the IFC provides food items for a nutritious Holiday family meal.

You may contribute online on the IFC's website (https://www.ifcweb.org/) by clicking on the Donate button (upper right hand side of webpage) and indicating an amount you'd like to contribute. Then in the Gift Description, the drop-down menu allows you to choose "Holiday meals." Or you may write a check with "Holiday meals" on the memo line to IFC, 110 West Main St., Carrboro, NC, 27510. Or you may leave a check with "Holiday meals" on the memo line in the meetinghouse foyer. An IFC member will take the checks to the IFC.

Thank you for your generosity.

Work Morning ~ 'tis the Season! December 10

Come and join the fun! Help us spruce up the grounds at the CHFM Meetinghouse Saturday, December 10th 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM.

We can use everyone's help. Please bring your rakes, loppers, shovels, gloves, garden tools, etc.

The IFC Pantry Needs Food Items

Carolyn Stuart shares with Friends:

The Inter-Faith Council pantry continues to need donations of food items. Please think of the IFC as you do your grocery shopping! The basket in the meetinghouse foyer is available to receive your contributions on First Days. We are no longer offering last-Wednesday food donation pickups, as Friends tend now to either support the IFC through financial contributions or bring food items to the foyer on First Days. Thank you.

Visiting the Meetinghouse During Covid

As you know we've curtailed use of the meeting house during the pandemic. Occasionally, people have, and needed to, gone into the meeting house to support the few essential tasks of the meeting. We appreciate that those visits have been brief and infrequent. We do ask though that anyone that needs to go into the meeting house to please notify John Hite, by phone or text, prior to going. Thank you.

1. Opening worship and query -

Query: How do I strive to achieve harmony and balance between my inner and outer commitments?

- 2. After opening worship, the Clerk welcomed Friends and recognized first-time attenders, Campo Larrick and Susan Peterson. She also reviewed the agenda.
- 3. Minutes of the October Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business (MWAB) were considered and approved.
- 4. Jeff Brown presented the Ministry and Worship committee annual report. It is attached here as Appendix 1. Friends expressed appreciation, especially for the ways in which the committee has kept the meeting together in the last couple of years, then accepted the report.
- 5. Dottie Heninger presented the Memorial minute for Lois Ann Hobbs. It is attached here as Appendix 2. Friends commented on the beauty of the minute. One Friend recalled a moment when Lois Ann looked around and said, "This is what I want our meeting to look like." The same Friend also appreciated the Friends who organized her 100th birthday celebration. Friends expressed and made minute of their appreciation of Dottie for composing our excellent Memorial Minutes, which not only memorialize Friends, but also serve as a history of our Meeting. Friends accepted the memorial minute and also the minute of appreciation.
- 6. Dave Curtin presented the Library committee annual report. It is attached here as Appendix 3. Friends noted that the library collection is especially useful for newcomers and noted that younger newcomers have been delighted to see the check-out card system that we use. One Friends raised the question of whether Memorial Minutes might be sent to Friends Journal as well as being deposited in the library. As the Memorial Book is under Care & Counsel, that committee will consider. Friends accepted the report with appreciation for the resource that the library is as well as of the committee's report itself.
- 7. John Hite provided a Buildings & Grounds committee update. The Porch repair is progressing, with a contractor in place, and work expected to be done after Thanksgiving. The HVAC project has been delayed due to illness. The next step is to complete load calculations, then we will call for design proposals. Fortunately, the current system is sufficient for the added load coming with new design that will improve ventilation. The committee also expressed appreciation of Susan Inglis and Jeff Brown's attendance at committee meetings as John and Peter took over clerking.

December 10 will be a work day, 9-12, and Friends are encouraged to bring rakes and loppers. Friends expressed appreciation of the committee's ongoing work as well as of the update.

- 8. Lynn Drake provided the Mary & Claude Shotts Memorial/Leadership Development Fund annual report. It is attached here as Appendix 4. Friends expressed great appreciation for the committee's support of Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting and Fellowship. It was also noted that Pendel Hill is again offering workshops live as well as online. Friends are encouraged to take advantage, as our doing so enriches the life of our meeting as a whole. Friends accepted the report.
- 9. Susan Peterson made a request for a clearness committee for membership, which the Clerk read from. The request will be referred to Ministry and Worship for formation of a clearness committee.
- 10. Gwynne Pomeroy presented the Naming Committee report. She and Jan Hutton were charged by the Clerk with finding new members for the Nominations Committee. Alice Carlton and Matt Drake are willing to join the Nominations Committee, so their names are brought forward to serve. Friends were in unity to accept Alice and Matt as members of the Nominations Committee.
- 11. Dottie Heninger presented the Chapel Hill Friends Meeting Land Acknowledgement. It is attached here at Appendix 5. It was originally presented in April 2021, and is a living document that will be updated as more information emerges. Dottie noted a caveat that there was much blending of tribes; it was not as clear cut as the first paragraph of our current acknowledgement might imply. Friends were moved by the acknowledgement, one noting that she learned a recent trip in Canada that Canadians introduce every talk with a land acknowledgement, which was incredibly powerful and changed her perspective. Friends remembered the Native American Center at UNC, noting it could be enriching to engage with that community and hear contemporary perspectives on the history we have just been talking about. The Adult Religious Education Committee will reach out to arrange a Forum. Friends were in unity to accept the current acknowledgement, with appreciation that it is a living document.
- 12. Monteze Snyder presented the revised Bequests policy for the Finance committee. It is attached here as Appendix 6. With discussion Friends approved the new policy to be posted asap on our website.
- 13. The Clerk called for other concerns of members, seeking unseasoned concerns that arise, if any, to be identified only and simply heard or referred. On behalf of Ministry & Worship, a Friend expressed appreciation for John Hite and Ken Grogan for facilitating the early worship, and to Jan Hutton for making sure we always have tech hosts. Dottie Henninger noted that Kitty Bergel's ashes were interred in the Memorial Garden on the 22nd. Wendy Michener reminded us that Colleen will not look much different from Ben. We will need time to get used to her different name and gender. We should be forgiving of ourselves as we make mistakes, and simply correct them.

Ministry and Worship Committee Annual Report

The Ministry and Worship Committee (M&W), made up of members of the Religious Society of Friends, supports the spiritual life of the Meeting. It also fosters understanding of Friends' principles and practices, in collaboration with other committees.

Since our last annual report in December 2021, COVID-19 variants transmitted in Orange County have continued to constrain our ability to gather in person for worship and fellowship. In consultation with Buildings & Grounds, Hospitality, and Children and Youth Education committees, the Ministry & Worship Committee continues to offer options for worship and religious education on First Days: early meeting for worship in the meeting room at 8:15, Forum via Zoom at 9:30, late meeting for worship in the meeting room at 11:00 with window fans enhancing ventilation, worship outside when weather permits at 11:00, worship online at 11:00 via Zoom, worship at Carol Woods at 11:00, and First Day School at 11:15 on the school building porch and playground. Masks are lovingly requested on Meeting property and social distancing has been practiced. Friends attended the meeting offerings with which they were comfortable, with health, safety and well-being in mind.

Meanwhile, the Zoom subcommittee, under the care of M&W, has consistently supported online meetings for worship on First Days, committee meetings, and events on the Zoom platform. Their service to the Meeting has been invaluable.

The Ministry & Worship Committee (M&W) carefully considered ways to enable all of us to worship together, understanding that many Friends are not able to attend meetings for worship in person. M&W has heard members and attenders lift up visions, values, opportunities, and concerns about worship and community.

The Zoom subcommittee has regularly informed M&W about evolving opportunities for blending online and in-person worship, informed by experiences of other Friends Meetings across the country. The Zoom subcommittee tested equipment and held four trial meetings for worship that successfully blended Zoom participation with in-person attendance in the meeting room. The subcommittee applied borrowed equipment to achieve blended worship, and identified the best technical components to recommend for purchase by Chapel Hill Friends Meeting: computer, web camera, monitor (TV), microphones, and tablet. Those components were purchased in September.

M&W sat with the blending opportunity for months, with attention to the quality of worship and the quality of our Meeting as a welcoming community. In August, M&W reached unity to recommend that the Meeting purchase the equipment recommended by the Zoom subcommittee to enable blended worship. M&W recommended starting in September by holding blended meetings once a month for four months, with technical support from the Zoom committee. After four months, M&W plans to revisit the recommendation regarding the frequency of blended meetings and requirements for a technician to operate the equipment in the meeting room. This recommendation was approved by Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business in August.

For ongoing responsibilities, the M&W Committee:

- Oversees the quality of Meeting for Worship and Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business (MWAB), mindful of the living silence and vocal ministry.
- Opens and closes each Meeting for Worship and organizes announcements.
- Stimulates reflection through queries, with one read each month at MWAB, during Meeting for Worship once a month, and printed monthly in the newsletter.
- Arranges activities (with other committees) to enhance the spiritual life of the Meeting, including small discussion groups, worship groups, retreats, and workshops.

- Supports Prayers for Healing/Holding in the Light on the second and fourth Wednesday evenings a month, with gratitude to the Care & Counsel Committee for assuming responsibility for this ministry.
- Provides responses to questions about the Religious Society of Friends and arranges clearness committees as requested by individuals seeking clearness on spiritual issues.
- Receives letters requesting membership, convenes the related clearness committees and reports recommendations to MWAB. This year we led a clearness committee for Karen Jessee and recommended membership, approved MWAB.
- Attends to the needs of visitors and new attenders in collaboration with the Hospitality Committee.
- Participates in clearness committees organized by the Care and Counsel Committee leading to the marriage of couples under the care of the Meeting.
- Nurtures other committees as they do the Meeting's work; examples in 2022 were outreach to Peace & Justice and Buildings & Grounds Committees.
- Plans (with other committees) celebrations of significant events in the spiritual life of the Meeting. These include our annual Christmas Eve Worship, Worship Sharing with Attention to Animals; Meeting for Worship with Attention to Graduating Seniors (Sutton King in 2022).
- Holds the annual Clerks' Retreat, attended in person on the school house porch in September. The retreat's agenda is created in collaboration with the Clerk of the Meeting with ideas from Committee Clerks on topics of interest. Focus is on helping old and new clerks renew or gain skills in the process of discernment and clerking a spirit-led meetings.
- Organizes the annual Spiritual State of the Meeting gathering, attended virtually by 15 in October. This is an opportunity to reflect on issues while sharing deeply with others on queries selected by M&W and from the Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting and Fellowship (Piedmont Friends). The committee reports the results to MWAB and PFYM. The report to Piedmont Friends includes a count of the overall number of Friends and attenders in attendance at Meetings for Worship, Forum, and First Day School throughout one month. This October we averaged 6 inside at early meeting, 40 inside at late meeting, 25 on Zoom, 8 at Carol Woods retirement center, and 6 in First Day School. We note, sadly, the absence from worship of attenders from Orange Correctional Center, though we are heartened by attendance by returned citizens.
- Consults with the Zoom subcommittee, formed in April 2020, under the care of M&W.
- Oversees some of the meeting's annual expenditures on affiliations, services, and benevolences. This year M&W recommended expenditures of $200 to Friends Journal for listing CHFM among monthly meetings in North America and support of QuakerSpeak video production, $350 to the Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting and Fellowship (not including leadership development support for attendance at in-person events), and $600 to Friends General Conference as a monthly meeting affiliation contribution. For benevolences related to ministry, M&W recommended gifts to two organizations:
  - $150 to the School of the Spirit, with which CHFM has a longstanding relation-ship (schoolofthespirit.org). The School of the Spirit Ministry serves all those who wish to be more faithful listeners and responders to the work of the Inward Teacher.
  - $100 to Friends for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer Concerns
    (FLGBTQC, https://flgbtqc.herokuapp.com/), the North American Quaker faith community that affirms that of God in all people, draws sustenance from each other and from the Spirit for work and life in the world, and learns that radical inclusion and radical love bring further light to Quaker testimony and life. CHFM has supported FLGBTQC for years, affirming CHFM's practice of joyfully embracing the Light within all, made visible through the participation of all people, no exceptions.

M&W expresses gratitude to Publications and Communications Committee for the ongoing maintenance of the Chapel Hill Friends Meeting website, weekly e-news, and In the Light messages.

With great appreciation, we thank Madelyn Ashley and Alice Carlton for their faithful service on M&W. We are grateful for new members Susan Inglis, Jennifer Leeman, and Jasmine McKewen who began serving in July.

Jeff Brown, clerk for the Ministry and Worship Committee, Matt Drake, Dottie Heninger, Susan Inglis, Jennifer Leeman, Jasmine McKewen, Carolyn White, and Ann Miller, ex-officio

Lois Ann Hobbs

April 19, 1922 – October 2, 2022

Lois Ann Hobbs was a force of nature! Her energy, curiosity, and conviction were part of all she did. Audace semper audace (be daring, always be daring) was her moto. And she lived up to it!

Lois Ann joined the Society of Friends and became a member of Chapel Hill Friends Meeting with her husband Grimsley. They were among the founding members of our Meeting. She embraced Quakerism with enthusiasm and lived the testimonies throughout her 100 years. Her concern for social justice included life-long work to be anti-racist and a supporter of women's rights. Indeed, she was still demonstrating for peace in her hundredth year as she held up signs on Weaver Dairy Road, calling for peace in Ukraine.

She also had a passion for friendship. She loved nothing more than an intense conversation with good friends. She was always ready to discuss ideas and was never shy about sharing her well-informed perspective. She embraced causes of social justice, but she cared equally about the individuals in her life. She invariably wanted to know about the lives and cares of her F/friends.

Lois Ann lived her faith as she helped to develop Arcadia using Quaker process to make decisions as this community was started. She could elder and provide counsel to others in effective ways, always deepening the love between them. Often, she could intervene and re-establish the beloved community among our Meeting members.

She is revered in our Meeting and will continue to influence us for years to come. Lois Ann and her family will not be forgotten. She served on all the committees in Meeting at one time or another. She was on Buildings and Grounds as the legendary carpet was chosen for the meeting room. She loved the current renovation and was glad that the carpet was now gone, thirty-plus years later.

We're reminded that love never dies. We will love Lois Ann as she continues to influence our Meeting life.

Library Committee Annual Report (2021-2022)

The Library Committee maintains and improves the Meeting's collection of library books, periodicals, pamphlets, and other resources to further the life of the Meeting and its participants. It annually reviews the collection and purchases new materials on its own initiative as well as considering requests from committees and individuals. It works particularly closely with the Ministry and Worship Committee, the Children's and Youth Religious Education Committee, and the Adult Religious Education Committee. Attendance at committee meetings is open to all.

We have not met regularly, as ventilation in the Library is not optimal.

Highlights from the last year.

- The library committee has continued to maintain the collection in Library Thing, our online guide accessible through the link on our web site, and we are working on ways to enter pamphlets and other publications that are not from Pendle Hill.
- 2. We did not purchase any new books.
- 3. A large number of books have been donated to the Library, but many of them do not seem to involve Quakers or Quakerism, so we will be giving them to other local libraries after evaluating the ones that we might be able to use.
- 4. We are printing copies of the newsletter on archival paper for the next volume.

Goals for the coming year.

- Find a safe way for people to once again get into the Library and check out books, pamphlets, CDs, and videos/DVDs. Ventilation is not adequate for multiple people to be in the room for long periods of time. We understand and appreciate that Building and Grounds is looking into the ventilation problem.
- 2. We hope to start putting out books that are duplicates for members and attenders to take if they are wanted. Books that are not taken will be donated to other meetings or libraries.

Please email library@chapelhillfriends.org if you have suggestions for purchases, subscriptions and the like.

Submitted respectfully by Allie Scales, Annalee Harkins, Bobbie Ackley Dave Curtin (clerk), Eloise Grathwohl, John Hite, and Lloyd Kramer

Shotts Memorial and Leadership Development Fund Committee

Annual Report for FY 2021-2022

November 20, 2022

The Mary and Claude Shotts/Leadership Development Funds Committee oversees two funds to support the leadings of Friends, both members and attenders, to enrich and deepen their capacity for leadership within the Meeting, the local community, and the Religious Society of Friends. The Mary and Claude Shotts Memorial Fund provides financial support to enrich and develop the lives of individuals with a relationship to the Chapel Hill Friends Meeting. The Leadership Development Fund provides grants to benefit the spiritual life of the Meeting through the enhancement of leadership capabilities in individuals. It should be noted that these funds are available to standing committees in the Meeting to support honoraria awarded to outside speakers who may be here for special events and programs open to the Meeting community.

Friends Fiduciary manages the investments for the Shotts Memorial Fund, and the current principal balance is $37,050.95 which is a reduction from last fiscal year's balance of $43,888.03. This indicates the volatility of the stock market. From this fund, we received $1,459.72 in interest income for the 2021-2022 fiscal year. Grants from the Leadership Development Fund are given from money carried over from prior years ($3,264.96) and, if requested, from annual allocations approved by the Meeting for Worship with attention to business. Both of these funds are in a single account at Truist, previously known as BB&T. For the fiscal year covered by this report (2021-2022) we dispersed $700 for two individual grants. The proposed $500 grant to Piedmont Yearly Meeting and Fellowship to cover the cost of Chapel Hill Friends to attend the Annual Gathering that was held at Guilford College was not made, due to technical errors, and will be made in the 2022-23 fiscal year. The balance in our Truist account at the end of the fiscal year 2021-2022 was $4,024.68, carried forward to FY2022-2023.

The restrictions resulting from on-going concerns with COVID have impacted the availability of leadership development programming as well as the interest of Friends in participating. We encourage Friends to stay alert to online opportunities, including those with fees charged, that may be of interest to you. Financial support is NOT need-based but is the Meeting's opportunity to support the spiritual and leadership development of our Meeting family.

Lynn Drake and Asta Crowe, co-clerks of the Shotts Memorial and Leadership Development Fund Committee on behalf of members Catherine Alguire, Ken Grogan, Jan Hutton, Susan Inglis, and Roberto Quercia.

Land Acknowledgement for Chapel Hill Friends Meeting

The Chapel Hill Friends Meeting sits on unceded Indigenous land where Occaneechi, Sissipahaw, Shakori, and Eno peoples lived. As Quakers, we acknowledge the genocide and continued displacement of Indigenous peoples during the colonial period and beyond.

In 1672, George Fox visited Carolina and publicly preached that Indigenous community members shared the Light within as, we believe, all humans do. We affirm Fox's teaching, and we recognize that injustices done to the Indigenous population continue in the present.

Site Heritage:

Artifacts found at Morgan Farm indicate that this area was inhabited almost continuously for the past 10,000 years. A 2004 archaeological exploration in Chapel Hill revealed spear points and potsherds, evidence that hunters as well as settlers lived along Franklin Street from 500 BC to 500 AD. Archaeological digs on Finley Golf Course showed similar proof that these communities hunted, built houses, and grew crops. The earliest recorded presence in our area of Indigenous peoples dates to 1701 when explorer John Lawson wrote "by the time the first settlers arrived, there were no more Indians left in the region." (Vickers, p. 7-8). Other historians assert that a greatly reduced number of Indigenous remained. Most had migrated north towards Hillsborough and the more active trading paths.

Lord John Carteret, the first Earl of Granville, received his land charter from King Charles II. By the 1730's colonial settlers began trickling into Granville's district, including Orange County. They came down the Great Wagon Road connecting modern Petersburg, Virginia and Mobile, Alabama. Mark Morgan was one who settled on the Finley Golf Course land. In 1747, Morgan's children bought surrounding land to encompass most of Chapel Hill plus territory in present day Durham County and south across Morgan Creek. About 1790, his descendant Hardy Morgan gave 205 acres, including areas now occupied by Carmichael Auditorium, grounds to the east, the cemetery, and Gimghoul Road, to help establish the University of North Carolina. This is the land where Chapel Hill Friends Meeting is located. The University retained ownership until Chapel Hill Friends Meeting bought the land in the 1950's.

This is a living document, and we will continue to revise and strengthen it in collaboration with community members and as new research evolves.

THE CHAPEL HILL FRIENDS MEETING ENCOURAGES YOU TO INCLUDE THE MEETING IN YOUR WILL AND ESTATE PLANS

As you consider including the Meeting in your will and estate plans, we encourage you to discuss your intentions with someone on the Finance Committee or someone else who knows you well. You might consider requesting a clearness committee to aid your decision-making. Consulting with an attorney and/or a financial advisor will also be helpful.

TO INCLUDE THE MEETING IN YOUR WILL, HERE ARE SUGGESTED CHOICES FOR WORDING:

"I give to the Chapel Hill Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, Chapel Hill, North Carolina: (choose one of the alternatives below)
A. the sum of $"
B% percent of my estate."
C. the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate."
Note: A fourth bequest alternative exists. It consists of giving property to the Meeting. However, since the Meeting is not equipped to evaluate property, we suggest that you give the property indirectly. That is, in your bequest of property to the Meeting, instruct your executor/executrix to sell the property first and then give the proceeds to the Meeting.
Observations about the above choices: A specific amount of money, Alternative "A," may be your first thought. However, "B. percent of my estate," may actually be a better decision for you and your heirs. With "B" the amount you bequeath will change as your assets change, either increasing or decreasing over time. In other words, a specific amount isn't "locked in." Alternative "C" offers another way of gaining flexibility with the amount of your bequest.
THREE OPTIONS FOR BEQUESTS
There are three options for you to contemplate as you prepare your will and begin to consider your bequest with your family and your executors.
1. Make an undesignated gift. The needs of our Meeting will surely change over time. Accordingly, we encourage you to leave a gift in your will for the general use of the Meeting, rather than for a specific designated purpose. In that instance, use this phrase: "This is an undesignated bequest. The use of my bequest is to be determined by the Chapel Hill Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business."
2. Alternatively, you may wish to donate to one of our Meeting's already-designated purpose accounts:
① Building Renovation;
① Care and Counsel;
② Returning Citizens;
① Shotts Leadership; or
① Youth Service.
In this case, use the phrase "This bequest is to go to theFund."
FOLLOW YOUR DESIGNATED BEQUEST STATEMENT, WHATEVER IT MAY BE, WITH THIS STATEMENT: "The Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business may alter or remove this designation due to changed conditions that make it impossible, impractical or undesirable to fulfill."

3. Donate for a specific purpose or project for which the Meeting has not yet established a designated purpose account. This option will require approval by the Finance Committee to assure consistency with current activities of the Meeting. It is important to note that according to IRS rules, the Meeting may only accept funds whose designated purpose intends to benefit the Meeting, and not individuals.

Regardless of the option that you choose, you can be confident that your gift will be used to make a real difference to the life of the Chapel Hill Friends Meeting.

Our Meeting will acknowledge gifts in whatever way you feel is most appropriate, or we can make sure that your gift remains anonymous.

NOTE: YOUR WILL IS NOT THE ONLY WAY TO INCLUDE THE MEETING IN YOUR ESTATE PLANS. You can also name the Meeting as a primary or contingent beneficiary of a life insurance policy, a retirement plan (e.g. IRA, SEP, 401 K, 403 (b), ESOP, etc.), and/or a trust.

If you have questions about including the Meeting in your estate plans, please contact the clerkof the Finance Committee. Based on your question, s/he will suggest ways for you to gain the answers you seek.
